Handwritten Japanese text on a red paper slip. The text is written vertically in cursive (sōsho) style. The most prominent characters in the center are "中" (middle), "下" (bottom), "ノ" (possessive particle), and "乙" (bottom character), which together read "中下ノ乙" (Nakagata no Ochi). To the left of this central text, there are several lines of smaller, fainter characters, likely providing additional details or a signature.
