

This For

M^r John Gosling:

Chauiter of G. quire of Canterbury Cathedral

Canterbury

London 8th of Feb. 1782

S^r

I have rec^d the favor of yours of G^d. 4th wth G^d. I enclosed for my Sonne Henry; I am sorry we are like to be without you so long as your meeting: but is very likely you may have a sumony to appeare among us sooner then you I magin; for my Sonne is composing; & when you will be chiefly conform^d However your oratory and eye, where you are must be confi-dential and your Conuencence, ever complye wth all; in G^d meane time assure your self I shall be carefull of your con-
-seruⁿg heire by minding and Refreshing our masters memo-ry of his gracious promis when there is oration: my wife Recei--ues thanks for y^r. Compliments wth her seruis: and praye^s give both our Respects and humble seruice, to D^r. Bell and his Lady
-dy and believe ever that I am

D^r. peres is in town but I have not seen him since I have performed y^r.
Compliments to D^r. Bell with Turner &c.

your affectionatt and humble servant

Purcell

I fault and double Elany are preparing for you

